Student Newspaper	Laurence Broadhurst lbroadhurst@stpauls.mb.ca	St. Paul's student-run newspaper, The Crusader News, publishes 4 professionally-printed, full-colour newspaper issues each academic year. Please consider joining the News Cru! You could be a writer, a reporter, a graphic artist, a photographer, a puzzler, or a layout designer. There is nothing quite like seeing your name in print – it endures forever and it looks fantastic on your résumé. If you are interested, pay keen attention to daily announcements in the next couple weeks!
Student Pastoral Team	Christian Martinez cmartinez@stpauls.mb.ca Fr. Marc Andre Veselovsky, SJ mveselovsky@stpauls.mb.ca Michelle Hancock mhancock@stpauls.mb.ca	Students are invited to join the Student Pastoral Team (SPT). As SPT we are attentive to the religious/ spiritual needs and interests of our students and organize events or initiatives that deepen our faith. We gather as a community, we listen to and welcome one another, we pray, and we have a lot of fun! We meet once per cycle during the lunch period. Sign up if you are interested.

Photography Club	Joel Adair jadair@stpauls.mb.ca	We are a group that is made up of students from across the four grade levels and we meet weekly in the art room. Our focus is to take pictures of school related events, but students are highly encouraged to shoot other subjects as well. Previous experience is appreciated but not necessary. If you are interested, we will meet in two weeks. Please listen for an announcement or come and see Mr. Adair in the Art room.
Pi Society (Math Club)	Kathy Moore kmoore@stpauls.mb.ca Elias Fiebelkorn efiebelkorn@stpauls.mb.ca	Offered daily (unless otherwise announced), Pi Society is a lunchtime space to work on math, get your math homework done, work alone or with others, get tutor or teacher assistance, become a tutor for younger students, or try some fun math challenges! Students can swing by B32 starting the week of September 9th for anything Math-related.
Reach for the Top	Laurence Broadhurst lbroadhurst@stpauls.mb.ca Joanne Higginson jhigginson@stpauls.mb.ca	Every school days A and B, at lunch, St. Paul's Reach for the Top trivia club practices in Room B34. We also regularly participate in games against other schools and in two province-wide championship tournaments. Feel free to drop by anytime to observe and even to participate in our trivia games. We are in particular courting Grade 9 and 10 students. All are most welcome.
